Add note 3 as follows:

Note 3: Telephone sets may be equipped with retractile handset cords. The code number of sets so equipped is the same as the code number of sets equipped with regular cords, except that the suffix R has been added to the code number. For example: a 201A-3 handset equipped with retractile handset cord would become a 201AR-3 handset. Sets ordered with suffix R will be equipped with retractile handset cords when received.
