INTRODUCTION

The HTC Vive's facerest may need replacement when it feels uncomfortable against your face or gets dirty. This guide will show you how to replace the Vive's facerest.

TOOLS:

- T6 Torx Screwdriver (1)

PARTS:

- HTC Vive Facerest (1)

Step 1 — Straps and Cables

- Slide the HTC panel covering the cables forward, away from the Vive.
- Gently pull on each of the four connectors to remove the sound and Three-in-One cables.

Step 2

- Undo the hook and loop tape on the straps.
- Slide the ends of the straps through the hinge loops.

Step 3 — Facerest

- Pull the facerest cushion off away from the Vive, separating the hook and loop tape.

Step 4

- Use a T6 Torx Screwdriver to remove either of the two 12mm hinge screws holding the two hinges in place.
- Allow the hinge to fall away once the screw is removed.
- Repeat for the opposite side.
