This loudspeaker was tinkered at the charge port (installation of a new one).

TOOLS:

- Phillips #0 Screwdriver (1)
- Spudger (1)

Step 1 — Protection Grids

- Use a plastic spatula or credit card to open the grids
- You should not have to exert too much force on the grids. There is a little bit of glue on it.

Step 2 — Screw!

- Remove the first 4 screws
- Blow up the round of plastic then take care of the remaining 4 screws.

Step 3 — We're in!

- Now you can access the motherboard.
- To disconnect the battery: disconnect the microphone first, it will make things easier.

Step 4 — Drums

- Unscrew the two screws of the white cover
- Get out of his notch, and here's the battery!
